

▲ Attending the Gala Seafood Banquet in Óstán Oileán Ácla were, from left: Pat and Breege Kilbane, Jessica and Ross Lewis (special guest) with Cllr Gerry Coyle.

▲ Patrick Knight from Seaford, Co Down with a crayfish at the fishmarket in Purteen Harbour.

▲ Achill's Master Chef Michael McNamara presents a seafood and seaweed cookery demonstration in Gielt's of Dooagh.

▲ Pictured are the contestants who finished first, second and third in the 'Achill's Got Talent' competition, which was held as part of the Seafood Festival, with the judges on the night, from left: James Kilbane, Conor Buckley, Carragh McGinty (winner), Tanith Billingham, Joan Egan and Maureen Daly.

▲ Carragh McGinty, winner of 'Achill's Got Talent' competition, with her family, from left: Joe, Ethan, Michael, Carragh, Margaret, Ailish and Margaret McGinty.

▲ Tanith Billingham, who finished in second place, takes part in 'Achill's Got Talent' competition which was held in the Achill Head Hotel, Keel.

▲ Annette O'Leary gave a presentation on gathering edible seaweed and its health benefits in the Achill Head Hotel. Aisling Coady (9) and her sister Laoise (7) tried their hand at bursting bladder wrack.

▲ Attending the Gala Seafood Banquet in Óstán Oileán Ácla were, from left; Betty and John F Gallagher with Kitty and PJ Bradshaw, Bunnacurry.